Our Process

Client success is a pretty simple formula for our firm. We help our clients thrive by staying connected with them. We have at least 3 client meetings with them annually. We review the results of their tax return and financial statements and discuss other potential tax planning opportunities or other areas inside the business, such as cash flow, internal controls, succession or exit planning. The outcome of other needs can dictate how much more interaction is needed prior to us meeting again to conduct tax projections for the year and then to meet to prepare your tax return.
