

Manufacturing & Distribution

Understanding What Matters

The Skillman Group will support your organization with tax and financial reporting that provides meaningful insight into your operations. We understand costing, asset depreciation, inventory shrinkage and the cost of carrying and processing materials, tax strategies and profit refinement.

Industry Focused Solutions

Our firm provides the advice and financial information needed to enhance operations and boost profitability. We have experience with the issues facing your industry and can help you assess and monitor critical success factors to keep you competitive in today's market.

Personalized Solutions

We don't use a "Cookie Cutter" approach. Our team understands your industry is continually evolving. Technology innovation, government regulations and tax incentives are always changing. We help you create solutions to manage costs, improve processes and optimize your tax position.

Our Client Solutions Include:

- Financial Statement Audit & Review
- Managed Accounting Services
- Income Tax Planning Strategies

The Next Step

Take the first step and call us today at (248) 641-5020 to see what our firm can do for you.

Industry Specific Tax Incentives:

- Research & Development
- Domestic Production Activities Deduction
- Cost Segregation
- Green Credits
- Transfer Pricing

Transition Planning

- Merger or Acquisition Strategies
- Family Succession or Exit Planning

Let Us Help You

We believe actions speak louder than words. Our team would like the opportunity to get to know your business and tailor the best option to your particular situation. We would like to become your trusted advisor and shift some of the burden of running your business to our team of professionals.

SKILLMAN GROUP, PLC
Certified Public Accountants and Business Advisors